"AN ACT CONCERNING THE GOVERNOR'S MANSION CONSERVANCY AND OTHER FOUNDATIONS RELATED TO STATE GOVERNMENT."

1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and substitute the 2 following in lieu thereof:

3 "Section 1. Section 3-10 of the general statutes is repealed and the 4 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

5 (a) The land, buildings, furnishings and improvements of the 6 Governor's official residence shall be maintained by the Commissioner 7 of Public Works and food, supplies and staff for such residence shall 8 be provided by the commissioner at the expense of the state.

9 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of the general statutes, for any 10 foundation, as defined in section 4-37e, and established for the purpose 11 of assisting the Commissioner of Public Works in performing the 12 duties described in subsection (a) of this section, the following 13 information shall be subject to disclosure in accordance with the 14 provisions of chapter 14: (1) The annual income and individual 15 expenditures and contributions in excess of two hundred dollars of 16 such foundation, (2) the names of the officers of any such foundation, 17 and (3) the names of any state employees acting on behalf of, or 18 working for such foundation.

19 Sec. 2. (NEW) (Effective from passage) (a) Notwithstanding any 20 provision of the general statutes, during any inquiry, investigation,
21 impeachment or other proceeding conducted pursuant to Article Ninth
22 of the Connecticut Constitution that is commenced on or after January 23 1, 2004, by the House of Representatives, all information, records of 24 interviews, reports, statements, depositions, notes, memoranda or 25 other data in the custody of or obtained or prepared by the House of 26 Representatives, any committee established by the House of 27 Representatives in furtherance of the purposes of said Article Ninth, 28 the staff of the House of Representatives or the staff of any such 29 committee shall not be subject to the provisions of section 1-210 of the 30 general statutes, as amended, until such committee transmits its final 31 report to the House of Representatives, provided the committee shall 32 have discretion to disclose any such information prior to the 33 transmittal of the final report. Information provided to the committee 34 by a public agency that is otherwise disclosable by the public agency 35 pursuant to the provisions of section 1-210 of the general statutes, as 36 amended, shall at all times be disclosable by the originating public 37 agency. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that any 38 individual waives any privilege provided by law when providing a 39 document or any other information to any such committee.

40 (b) Not later than ninety days after the conclusion of the last 41 occurring inquiry, investigation, impeachment, trial or other
42 proceeding conducted pursuant to Article Ninth of the Connecticut 43 Constitution that is commenced on or after January 1, 2004, by the 44 House of Representatives or the Senate, any document, recorded data, 45 information or other tangible materials of any kind prepared, received,

46 owned, used or retained in the course of said inquiry, investigation, 47 impeachment, trial or other proceeding, except those items that have 48 been exempted from disclosure pursuant to state or federal law, shall 49 be delivered to the State Library for preservation and archiving, 50 provided an electronic version of such materials shall be provided to 51 the clerks of the House of Representatives and the Senate."

This act shall take effect as follows:
